

Letter to President Trump from Dr. Krishnan Suthanthiran: Bringing an End to the Ukraine/Russian Conflict

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, February 18, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- President Trump deserves the gratitude of the American people for diligently working to end the war between Russia and Ukraine. As this conflict drags on, the numbers continue to rise. The total number of Ukrainian and Russian troops killed or wounded since the war in Ukraine began is nearing 500,000[1]. This doesn't even account for the loss of civilian lives or those injured.

Open dialogue, as an alternative to brute force and military engagement, is necessary in order to bring an end to this unnecessary conflict and loss of human lives and property. Dr. Suthanthiran sent two open letters to the presidents of Russia, Ukraine and the U.S. in 2021 and 2022 advocating for this (see <http://www.teambest.com/press/EINPresswire-open-letter-to-the-presidents-of-ukraine-russia-and-usa.pdf> and <http://www.teambest.com/press/EINPresswire-579899858-from-krishnan-suthanthiran-president-founder-of-teambest-global-companies-to-leaders-of-russia-ukraine-u-s-europe.pdf>) but of course, the negotiations never succeeded and the losses continue to grow.

It is very encouraging to see your determination to end this vast human tragedy. Neither Russia, Ukraine, Europe, nor the U.S. can support the continuation of this conflict—either militarily or financially.

Unfortunately, the U.S. and American citizens have also been victimized. The U.S. has provided the most military aid[2] by far, draining resources from many domestic needs while increasing the budget deficit.

Once again, Mr. President, thank you for your determination to end this immense human tragedy and for safeguarding the independence of Ukraine and Moldova. May there be a swift resolution to this conflict.
